Areas We Serve

We at Sharon Bailey Network -Staffing div., are recruitment experts and serve a wide range of sectors including finance, marketing, back office support, project management, manufacturing, industrial, information technology (I.T.), insurance, real estate, health care and human resources. Serving all levels from entry level to senior management on a temporary or permanent basis.

How it works

First we consult with you to create or collect an in depth job description of the position.

Then we consult with you to create the profile of a successful candidate that you feel will excel in the role.

Our experienced and talented recruitment specialists then locate your ideal candidates using a variety of specialized techniques and tools. These also include our extensive database of qualified candidates, social media, industry networking, internet searches and more.

We are thorough at screening, excel at recruiting and love presenting highly qualified candidates. All of our recruitment specialists have been specially trained to perform interviews based on competency. We endeavor to check at least three references for each qualified candidate we place with you.

Our extensive screening process

We determine eligibility to work in specified country and assess whether or not relocation is required

We refer to their references to help determine their reputation, communication and successes. Competency is tested in various areas such as, team skills, leadership skills, communication skills, self management, self motivation, self knowledge, conflict resolution, management skills, motivation, problem solving, education, work experience and more.
